

Gentlemen:Who in radio and TV is paying you off to disregard the 1st Amendment? First you try to silence Howard Stern and him alone when other people in broadcast media are saying the same things as him, now you are trying to stifle an industry.

This country was built on capitalism. If a new technology comes along why are you trying to silence it?

This is MY government, and I want it back!